O R D E R

The petition is filed taking grievance as regards the interim order not allowing the writ petitioner to continue as Sarpanch.

After carefully going through the pleadings and also after hearing counsel of both the sides, I am of the view that the matter should be decided immediately by the Commissioner - respondent no.1 before whom the appeal is pending.

Shri Alok Bakshi, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in fact till this date the petitioner has not handed over the charge to any one. Therefore, it is submitted that the petitioner should be allowed to function as Sarpanch until the appeal is disposed of by the Commissioner.

It appears that to pass an interim order, at this stage, may not serve the purpose. However, I am definitely of the opinion that even though it has been stated that the matter is fixed for hearing some-time in November, it should be heard immediately by issuing notices to the parties. In order to settle the matter immediately, let the Commissioner hear the parties and dispose of the matter finally by 31/10/2001 and not later than that date. I emphasise that the Commissioner shall shall issue notices to the parties immediately on receipt of this order.

With the above observations and directions, this petition is disposed of.
